

A hand-drawn diagram of a boot leather heel pattern. The pattern is roughly rectangular with rounded corners and is drawn on a piece of paper that is slightly tilted. The text "Boot Leather Heel" is written in the center, followed by "Cut 4x leather". A double-headed arrow at the bottom is labeled "grain", indicating the direction of the leather grain. The pattern is outlined with dark lines, and there are some lighter, shaded areas within the pattern, possibly representing stitching or different layers of leather.
